BY LAST NIGHT'S MAIL.

THE WIRZ CASE.

Mr. Louis Schade, counsel for Captain Wirz, was at the President's house to-night to intercede in behalf of his client. He is apprehensive that the Military Commission have found him guilty of all the charges, and, therefore, is desirous of saving him from the death penalty. Although Mr. Schade's fears may be well grounded, several days will probably elapse before the result of the trial shall be promulgated. As the members of the court were sworn to secresy, the findings can only be known with certainty through an official source. The President has not yet acted on the record presented by the Commission.

From Washington we are informed that on Saturday afternoon, an Italian committee, composed of Prof. Achille Magni, Mr. Henry Fardella, who lately distinguished himself as General in the Union army, and Mr. Theodore Marana, who fought for the independence of Italy, all residents of New York, gained an introduction to President Johnson in order to present to his Excellency the following petition, sent to Prof. Achille Magni by the committee in Milan:

A nation still far from that fullness of life and power to which she is entitled, nay, even under the necessity of appealing to the universal brotherhood in order to overcome the last obstacles to her revival, has in a special degree the right of speaking in the name of humanity without offending anybody's pride. Therefore, we hope that you, in receiving our supplication, will forget that we are citizens of a foreign nation, and will remember only that we are men and your own brethren.

The death of President Lincoln plunged us into mourning, but the execution of Davis would make us blush. We cannot comprehend through what necessity the justice of a great and victorious people could imitate the vengeance of an assassin detested even by your vanquished as infamous. We cannot understand why the American Union should be less sure either of its greatness or its integrity, if to so much blood shed during the war this one drop more, coldly spilled in peace, should not be added. Davis, from his scaffold, would say: "Then I make you tremble."

Battling for freedom and justice against the institutions and prejudices of old Europe, we have up to the present strenuously advocated that where freedom reigns thence violence is banished; where the people are sovereign there the hangman is not their minister. To the timid and incredulous we have until now pointed out the example of your States; but if a contrary example should henceforth support him who founds order on terror, if that beneficial influence which has fostered liberty in Europe, should no longer be shed from America, the fatal contagion of legal violence may perhaps begin to extend from Europe to your shores.

It has been said that republics are more inexorable than tyrants; that tyrants may practice clemency from fear, ambition, or a sudden impulse of natural goodness; that republics, on the contrary, fear no censure, seek no applause—are heartless. But we know that the President of your Republic can feel for every one. Abraham Lincoln would not have deserved either such dogged hatred from the wicked, or such genuine, earnest love and sorrow from the good, had he not gained from the triumphs of war the sublime force to command pardon from the victors to the conquered. Now the attention of all, as well as our prayer, is directed towards your Excellency, the heir of the task and the virtues of your predecessor. While public opinion in Europe compels the monarchs to mitigate the rigor of the laws by exercising "their right of grace," the friends of human progress are tremblingly awaiting your action, and hoping that the American people, at least in time of peace, will take the axe from the fasces of their lictors.

Signed by the Executive Committee for the erection of a monument to Cesare Beccaria, and for the abolition of capital punishment.

PARDONS.

The President granted twenty-three pardons on Monday, all but five Virginians. Among those pardoned were Major General J. L. Kemper, Brigadier General Frost and ex-Congressman J. M. L. Curry, of Alabama.

THE SANDERS ABDUCTION CASE.

MONTREAL, Oct. 21.—In the Sanders kidnapping case the jury was again locked up, but could not agree. The Court charged the jury that the honor of the country and the sacred principles of a free asylum for strangers, private as well as public honor, conscience and everything, called on the jury for a fair verdict in accordance with the facts. His Honor held that there was no consent given by Mr. Sanders to the conspiracy, and finally concluded by charging directly against the prisoners. There is little chance of the jury agreeing.

GOV. PEIRPOINT IN WASHINGTON.—The following card, which we find in the Constitutional Union, sets at rest another of the telegrams:

"DISLOYAL SENTIMENT PROMPTLY REBUKED.—The Hon. Freeman Clark peremptorily ordered Governor Peirpoint, of Virginia, to leave his office at the Treasury on account of uttering disloyal sentiments. The language used in part was: 'We people of the South never will submit to be taxed to pay the Union war debt. We never will stand it, sir,' &c."

The above appeared in the New York Tribune's special Washington dispatch of the 17th instant.—Freeman Clark, by a subordinate in his office, procured the above statement to be made. It contains two gross falsehoods: 1st. Freeman Clark did not order Gov. Peirpoint to leave his office. 2d. Governor Peirpoint did not say, "We people of the South never will submit to being taxed to pay the Union war debt. We will never stand it, sir."

Both statements are grossly false, and Freeman Clark knew them to be false when he procured them to be published. F. H. PEIRPOINT.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 28, 1865.

ELECTION OF BISHOPS.—The General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church, at its session last Monday night, elected the following Bishops:

Rev. George M. Randall, D. D., Missionary Bishop of Colorado and parts adjacent, with jurisdiction in Colorado, Montana, Idaho and Wyoming.

Rev. M. A. De Wolf Howe, as Missionary Bishop of Nevada and parts adjacent, with jurisdiction in Nevada, Utah, Aramingo and New Mexico.

THE DAILY PROGRESS.

VOL. VI. RALEIGH, SATURDAY, OCT. 28, 1865. NO. 296.

GENERAL ITEMS.

—The trial of brevet Brigadier-General Briscoe, for the larceny of funds belonging to the United States in the possession of the quartermaster at Lynchburg, Va., terminated on Saturday. The proceedings and findings have been forwarded to the Secretary of War for action, and will probably be promulgated in a few days.

—A letter from the Norfolk navy-yard says that in the dry dock is a portion of the frigate Congress, out of which is being removed old guns, tanks, &c., and frequently something much resembling the remains of a human body, is exhumed. Alongside of the wharf are the once Confederate rams Texas, Albemarle and Richmond, all of them formidable ironclads.

—$20,000 in addition to previous requisitions will be required to pay the bounties to colored troops, under a recent decision of Attorney General Speed.

—Gov. Andrew, of Massachusetts, declines the Presidency of Antioch College, Ohio. He expects to be President of a Southern Emigration Company.

—In Kansas, a State settled by Freedom Shriekers, and where black is the color of joy, the new Constitution only allows white men to vote.

—General Grant has ordered that no one shall hereafter be arrested as a deserter for running off to avoid the draft.

—Garrett Davis has filed a petition in the Bourbon circuit court against the Kentucky Central Railroad, and Generals Brisbin and Palmer, claiming ten thousand dollars damages, for carrying several of his slaves out of the State, under Palmer's and Brisbin's orders. This is to be a test case.

—The last rebel prisoner of war, at Elmira, left on Tuesday, and the post is closed.

—Gov. Johnson, of Georgia, requests the President to retain the military in that State until the militia are organized.

—The papers describe Miss Anna Dickinson as a lady of twenty-five, or so. Considerably more "so," saith the Boston Post.

—The Nashville Dispatch says that nobody there has heard anything of the alleged "guerilla outrages" at Springfield, Robertson county, Tennessee, a sensational telegraphic account of which was sent all over the country a few days ago.

—Henry C. Magruder, a guerilla, aged 22 years, and of a respectable family, was executed at Louisville on last Friday. The Democrat states that he marched to the gallows with a cigar in his mouth, and manifested the coolest indifference as to his fate.

—A dispatch from J. A. Donohue, President of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce, to A. A. Low, President of the New York Chamber of Commerce, says the effects of the earthquake on the 8th instant were very slight, doing no damage of moment, and that there has been no interruption of business.

—A petition has been sent Governor Wells, from citizens in North Louisiana, asking him to take steps to prevent the threatened negro insurrection in that locality, of two negro regiments raised by Banks, which have been disbanded. It is said they retain their organization, notwithstanding the disbandment.

—A notice was posted yesterday, giving a list of eighty or ninety persons whose pardons were ready for delivery at the State Department. Among them were William C. P. and Robert J. Breckinridge, and W. C. Bullock, of Kentucky.

—The nine hundred beautiful and accomplished young ladies who were to have sailed for Washington territory two weeks ago last Saturday, are still pining in the solitude of their New England homes, and will probably continue to pine some weeks longer. Mr. Mercer, the agent under whom they are to seek homes and husbands in the glorious West, expects to be ready to sail to-day, but it is just as likely that there will be another protracted delay of a few weeks. It is said that nearly all the young ladies (the oldest is only 23) are "well educated, handsome, virtuous, energetic, industrious, and possessed of a sincere desire to improve their condition."

—Col. John W. Fairfax, of London county, Va., ex-chief of Gen. Longstreet's staff, and who received a special pardon form the President a short time since, has forwarded the necessary documents to secure the restitution of his property in the above county, now held by the Freedmen's Bureau, and which is known as the Monroe estate.

—It is understood that Major General Howard, upon his return from the South, will immediately enter upon the preparation of the report of the Freedmen's Bureau. A good share of the data necessary to the compilation of that document is now being prepared in the Bureau, and his extended examination of the practical operation of the agents of the Bureau in the South will furnish the material requisite for its completion.

—The medical department of the Freedmen's Bureau estimates that it has about seven thousand sick and helpless negroes under its care and treatment throughout the Southern States, the number of such dependents averaging about six hundred to each State.

An installment of Secretary Seward's correspondence has been made public. It refers to discussions with Spain relative to her maritime jurisdiction beyond the shore of Cuba, and promises neutrality in the contest between Spain and Chili. Mr. Seward in it reiterates his determination to maintain diplomatic relations with the Liberals in Mexico. Mr. Wood, our resident Minister in Denmark, is rebuked for having exchanged visits with the envoy of Maximilian to St. Petersburg, Stockholm and Copenhagen, and instructed to know no State not acknowledged and known by our State Department.

Throughout the State of North Carolina the Union feeling is increasing rapidly, and the people are awakening to a due sense of their relations towards the Government. A disposition to aid it in its noble and generous efforts to bring about reconciliation and harmony is evinced in almost every county of the State. Prominent citizens take the lead in this matter, and many men, who were devoted and active in the cause of rebellion, are now using their influence among their friends and neighbors for the purpose of restoring amity and peace to the country. Calls are published for Union conventions, and preparations are in progress for the election, which is to be held on the 9th of November.

It is be hoped that good men and true will receive the nominations to be made this month. They should be men who can take the oath—men qualified and able to assume the weighty responsibilities of the hour.—[Washington Chronicle.

THE CITY.

☞ Persons in city and country are requested, at all times, to furnish us verbal or written information of any events of public interest which may transpire in their neighborhoods, or of which they may have knowledge.

TURNED OVER.—We intended to state, yesterday, that the Atlantic and North Carolina railroad has been turned over to the company by the military authorities. We believe that this completes the work of restoration in this State, so far as relates to our internal improvement system. Ability to make such an announcement affords us the highest satisfaction. It is but an indirect method of proclaiming that military necessities are decreasing with the lapse of every week and soon we shall find ourselves altogether relieved from an unnatural condition.

It is to be hoped that the different companies will, now that they have control, have an eye to local interests in arranging both their schedules and tariffs. We do not intend to arraign any of the improvement corporations upon the charge of illiberality, but wish to suggest that throughout the South there has been too much attention paid to connection with external lines of travel. We desire to see such reform as will secure to the citizens of North Carolina a share of the benefits derivable from the railroad system when wisely managed. In brief, while it may be perfectly agreeable and decidedly advantageous to Virginia and Northern cities for our railroads to work upon given plans, these identical arrangements may operate to hinder internal prosperity. In all things we must discriminate in favor of local enterprise in order to a proper developement of State power.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—Considerable interest was felt here during the earlier part of yesterday to learn the reason of the non-arrival of the mail train from Charlotte. About 4 o'clock in the afternoon, however, all anxiety was allayed by the whistle of the engine and the appearance of belated travellers on our streets.

The delay was produced by the breaking of an axle of the tender, about 2 o'clock in the morning, four miles beyond Morrisville. We are glad to understand that only three persons were injured and the trio so slightly as not even to inconvenience them. Three cars were thrown from the track and one completely demolished. We feel confident the accident was not the result of want of circumspection on the part of any of the employees. Mr. Wilkes is strict in his regulations and requires of all persons in the company's employ rigid accountability.

CERTIFICATES NOT NECESSARY.—It is of some importance for voters to remember that in the next or November election it will not be necessary for them to show a certificate of the amnesty oath. It is only requisite that the oath shall have been taken. This applies to all citizens who are not among the excepted classes. Every justice of the peace can administer the oath. The attention of all inspectors of polls is invited especially to the ordinance providing for the election of members of the general assembly, governor and representatives to Congress. Under the provisions of this ordinance inspectors are directed to examine on oath all challenged voters, touching the question whether they are duly qualified to vote, by having taken and subscribed the amnesty oath, either of President Johnson or President Lincoln.

WHERE IS THE LEAK?—We have forborne making mention of the irregularities in the mail communication between this city and New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Norfolk, but complaints with respect to them are becoming so common as to convince us that we are not the only sufferers. Our neighbors of the Advertiser allege that "letters frequently spend a week on the route from New York, while newspapers and circulars are entirely lost. There should be an inquiry into the matter at once, so that the gross neglect which is productive of so much business embarrassment, may be properly located. It is only through such course that the displacement of delinquents can be accomplished. Let them loose their "pap" and become better and wiser men.

THE OLD NORTH STATE SALOON.—Among the many places in our city where the wants of the inner man are gratified, none perhaps present a more splendid and recherché appearance than the above popular resort. Here can be enjoyed, amid a flood of dazzling light, surrounded by gorgeous paintings, and attractive books and papers, the sparkling Heidsick, fragrant punch, and the more democratic beverages.

Capt. Dexter, the polite and obliging superintendent, is always on hand, adding his part to the general fund to be enjoyed at this favorite saloon.

IMPORTANT TO TAX-PAYERS.—The mayor pro tem gives information elsewhere of a little arrangement in which the property-holders hereabout are deeply interested. The tithing agencies of the confederacy have been abolished, and yet it is found necessary to have money to operate the government machine. It may appear fallacious, but it is just so, and we hope those who are fortunate enough to have any property left will hand in a list of it early next Monday.

TO-DAY the Magistrates of the county are to meet at the court-house and appoint inspectors of election.

THE Raleigh minstrels, it is said, give their farewell concert at market hall this evening. If so, they should have a full house.

TO BE SUCCESSFUL—we take it for granted—is the wish of every candidate in the present campaign. They must therefore supply the ammunition promptly to the scouts and we inform them that election tickets, in any quantity, from one to fifty thousand, can be printed at this office on the shortest possible notice. Price, one dollar per thousand.

Circulars, book work and all other jobbing done with dispatch.

CAN'T DO IT.—We are constantly in receipt of applications, by mail and otherwise, for copies of particular ordinances of the convention. We cannot undertake to comply with such requests. It is not difficult for individuals to subscribe to one of the three papers in Raleigh, in each of which the ordinances are being regularly printed. Every citizen should file them for future reference.

THE GAS last night, from some cause, threatened an eclipse. About 9 o'clock we felt some apprehension that the obscuration would be total. It is currently reported on the streets that the bad light was the result of a negro's looking into the furnace, he being so black as to transform the rosin into tar.

DISCONTINUED.—The Postmaster General has issued orders for the discontinuance of the carriage of letters by route agents, to points between post-offices. This is done to induce the people to apply for the establishment of postal facilities.

JUDGE GILLIAM, we are requested to say, will hold a court of Oyer and Terminer for Davidson county, at Lexington, on the 2nd Monday in November, instead of the 1st Monday, as heretofore published.

THE SOUTHERN EXPRESS CO.—The officers of this company have placed us under obligations for regular receipt of the Petersburg papers. They will accept our thanks.

We invite attention to the advertisement of Baugh's raw bone super-phosphate of lime. Those who are interested in cultivating the earth should inquire as to its merits.

DAILY PROGRESS.

RALEIGH N. C.

SATURDAY, OCT. 28, 1865.

NATIONAL UNION ANDREW JOHNSON TICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR:

WILLIAM W. HOLDEN,

OF WAKE COUNTY.

Election Thursday, 9th November, 1865.

FOR CONGRESS:

FOURTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT,

COL. J. P. H. RUSS,

OF WAKE COUNTY.

"Every dollar of the debt created to aid the rebellion against the United States should be repudiated finally and forever."—ANDREW JOHNSON TO GOV. HOLDEN.

Jonathan Worth, and the "Sentinel," the organ of the disaffected faction that brought him forward for Governor, are in favor of taxing the people to pay the rebel State debt.

Henry Ward Beecher on Johnston and Lee.

The Northern papers inform us that this pulpit-politician has appeared in a new character—this time as repudiating certain newspaper articles, ascribed to him, in which President Johnson was soundly abused, and the cause of peace and restoration damaged. He used the opportunity to indulge in one of his periodical political sermons, in which he gave his unqualified indorsement of President Johnson, advocated forbearance and kindness towards the South, and declared that they must regulate negro suffrage for themselves, without the interference of the North. Still, he thought it would be better for the South to admit the freedmen to a full enjoyment of all the privileges of citizens. He thought with the President "that all measures for the relief of the blacks must have the cordial support and countenance of the South. We here cannot aid them; they are at arms length, and it is not wise for the central General Government to attempt to regulate affairs. The laws and interests of the Government and ourselves will prove of no avail if they are hostile and unpleasant to the white men of the South."

He thought the idea of Mr. Montgomery Blair in favor of negro colonization and separation from the white, preposterous.

Speaking of General Lee, he said that he was pained to see the many unjust criticisms upon that gentleman on the occasion of his late installation as President of Washington College. He thought that during the war Gen. Lee conducted himself without unnecessary violence, and when he laid down his sword, "who," he asked, "could have been more modest, quiet or honorable than he?" He hoped that Gen. Lee would prosper in his new avocation, feeling sure that the youth under his charge would be well drilled.

Blair vs. Stanton.

The Blair family—Francis P., Sr.; no less than Frank, Jr.—are really enthusiasts in any cause they may espouse. The elder as the confidential friend and newspaper organ of Gen. Jackson and a long line of Presidents, not merely evinced abilities of a high order, but wonderful capacities in party management. His son appears to inherit a good share of the father's abilities and all of his uncompromising party spirit. At Rolla, in Illinois, the other day, he made an able and characteristic speech. He stated that around the works of Vicksburg, were captured by Grant over one hundred thousand bales of cotton, and turned over to the government, and not a thousand bales of it ever were accounted for. He said the Provost Marshals of the West were a set of thieving plunderers generally, and robbed the people and swindled the government. He made bitter war upon Stanton; accused him of being an original traitor, and said that Alexander H. Stephens, the Vice President of the Southern Confederacy, was a loyal man—a more loyal man than Stanton, Drake, Fletcher, or any other radical; and that, when Stanton had Stephens locked up, the good, loyal and true man was inside, and the rascal and traitor upon the outside. He came down upon the officers of the Western army with one full swoop. He charged them with all sorts of corruption.

Letter from Gen. Beauregard.

General Beauregard, upon being made aware of the intended publication in Harper of the criticism of General Jordan upon the administration of Mr. Davis during the existence of the Confederacy, wrote the following letter to the editor of that journal:

"NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 2, 1865.

"Dear Sir:—I received a few days since from Gen. Thomas Jordan the proof sheets of an article entitled 'Jefferson Davis,' which is to appear in the October number of your magazine. I have written to him requesting him not to publish it at this moment, when Mr. Davis is a close prisoner in a fortress; but fearing General Jordan may not receive my letter in time, I take the liberty of writing to you direct, in the hope that the publication of the article may be delayed at least until Mr. Davis shall have been liberated, in order to afford him the opportunity of defending himself should he think proper to do so.

"I am far from being one of his admirers or proselytes; indeed, I might have many things to say against his mismanagement of our national affairs while he was our Chief Magistrate; but we should never strike at a fallen foe when incapable of opposing any resistance.

"Respectfully, your obedient servant,

The article had been printed before the reception of Gen. Beauregard's letter.

CANDIDATES FOR CONGRESS.—The following candidates have been announced for Congress:

Ordinances and Resolutions Passed by the North Carolina State Convention, First Session 1865.

AN ORDINANCE

To provide Revenue for the year eighteen hundred and sixty-five:

Section 1. Be it ordained by the delegates of the people of North Carolina, in Convention assembled, and it is hereby ordained by the authority of the same, That the sheriffs of this State, collect, in their respective counties, in the existing national currency, and pay over to the Public Treasurer, before the first day of February, eighteen hundred and sixty-six, taxes on the subjects and persons, and according to the rates hereinafter set forth—these taxes applying and operating during the twelve months next preceding the first day of January, eighteen hundred and sixty-six.

Sec. 2. On every Surgeon Dentist, Physician, Lawyer, Portrait Painter, Daguerrean Artist, or other person taking likenesses of the human face, every Commission Merchant, Factor, Broker, owner of cotton or woollen factory, except when such factory has been destroyed, and auctioneer whose total receipts and income in the way of practice, fees, commissions or emoluments from his profession or business exceed one thousand dollars, one per cent. on the total amount of his receipts or income.

Sec. 3. On every gallon of whiskey, brandy, or other spirituous liquor distilled for his own use or for sale, by the owner or person using any distillery, twenty-five cents; and a like sum on every gallon distilled for other persons, to be paid by the person for whom the same was distilled, and on every gallon of whiskey, brandy, or other spirituous liquor distilled out of this State and imported into it for sale, a tax of fifty cents.

Sec. 4. On every company of circus riders, or exhibitors of collections of animals, for every county in which they shall exhibit for rewards, fifty dollars.

Sec. 5. On every company of theatrical players or persons performing feats of strength or of agility, or exhibiting natural or artificial objects, for each county, in which they shall exhibit for rewards, fifty dollars.

Sec. 6. On the gross receipts of every Insurance Company incorporated out of the State, five per cent.

Sec. 7. Six per cent. on the profits of every bond or note broker, private banker, or agent of a broker or banker in any other State.

Sec. 8. On every billiard table, one hundred dollars; and on every private billiard table in use, twenty-five dollars.

Sec. 9. On every bowling alley, whether called a nine or ten pin alley, or by any other name, fifty dollars.

Sec. 10. On every livery stable, or place where horses are kept for hire, twenty-five dollars.

Sec. 11. On every retailer by a measure less than a quart of spirituous liquor, wine or cordial, or malt liquors, seventy-five dollars for each place where such retailing may be carried on: Provided, however, that in all cases in which a license has been granted to any retailer of spirituous liquors, and he has paid any amount to the sheriff or clerk of the county Court of his county for such license, the amount so paid shall be credited to such retailer in the collection of the tax laid by this section: Provided, however, that if any such retailer shall, on or before the first day of November next, have altogether ceased to retail as aforesaid, and shall not again so retail during the year, in all such cases, such retailer shall pay a tax of but forty dollars.

Sec. 12. Two per cent. on the amount of all purchases of spirituous liquors, wines or cordials, made in this State or elsewhere, for the purpose of sale in this State, either by wholesale or retail.

Sec. 13. On every pedlar, either on land or water, for each county in which he may peddle hereafter, any spirituous liquors, goods, wares, or merchandise, whether such pedlar travels on foot, or with a conveyance of any kind whatever, fifty dollars.

Sec. 14. Five per cent. on the gross amount received by any Express Company for the carriage or transportation in this State of any package, article or thing.

Sec. 15. On each bale of cotton, or hogshead of tobacco, or on every two hundred dollars worth of manufactured tobacco, of the growth of this State, held or owned in this State or elsewhere at any time during the year eighteen hundred and sixty-five by persons producing the same, a tax of one dollar.

Sec. 16. On each bale of cotton, or hogshead of tobacco, or on every two hundred dollars worth of manufactured tobacco, held or owned in this State at any time during the year eighteen hundred and sixty-five, by any person other than the producer, without regard to the time or place when or where purchased or otherwise acquired, a tax of two dollars.

Sec. 17. On each barrel of tar, turpentine and rosin held in this State at any time during the year eighteen hundred and sixty-five, by any person other than the producer, without regard to the time when purchased or otherwise acquired, a tax of ten cents.

Sec. 19. One-half of one per cent. on the amount of all purchases made in or out of the State, whether for cash or on a credit, by any merchant tailor, grocer, jeweller, druggist, apothecary, produce dealer, commission merchant, factor, produce broker, or dealer, and every other trader, who, as principal or agent for another, carries on the business of buying or selling goods, wares or merchandise, of whatever name or description; Provided, however, That purchases of cotton, tobacco, turpentine, rosin, tar and spirituous liquors, wine, and cordials, shall not be included in the amount of purchases on which the tax laid by this section is to be estimated: And provided further, that in all cases in which Treasury Notes of the Confederate States, or of this State, or bank notes, constituted the currency in which purchases have been made, the value of specie of such currency at the time of such purchase shall be counted in estimating the amount of any such purchase.

Sec. 20. All cotton, tobacco, rosin, tar and other articles or things specially taxed by this ordinance, and all such articles or things which are taxed by this ordinance as part of the amount of purchases made during the year eighteen hundred and sixty-five, which may have been destroyed, or of which the owner or purchaser has been deprived of the possession without his consent, shall be exempt from the operation of this ordinance.

Sec. 21. To ascertain the amount of taxes due from any person, company, firm or corporation, the sheriff or his deputy is hereby authorized and empowered to examine on oath, any person or any member of any firm or company, or any president, agent or other officer of any company or corporation; and in case any such person shall refuse fully to answer, on oath, such person shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and said sheriff or deputy sheriff shall commit him to prison, unless he shall enter into recognizance, with good security, in such sum as shall be required, to appear before the Superior Court of law of his county, at its next term, to answer the charge, and on conviction he shall be fined or imprisoned, at the discretion of the Court.

Sec. 22. It shall be the duty of the Sheriff, or his deputy, to demand payment of the taxes by this ordinance imposed, from the parties owing the same, as promptly as may be practicable; and if such taxes shall not be paid within twenty days after such demand, it shall be lawful for such Sheriff, by himself or his deputy, to proceed to collect such taxes, with ten per cent. additional thereto, by distraint and sale of the goods, chattels or effects of the delinquent tax payers, and use all other remedies prescribed in the revised Code against delinquent tax payers.

Sec. 23. The persons now acting in the several counties of this State as Sheriffs, under the existing Provisional Government, shall, as soon as practicable, summon the Justices of the Peace appointed by the Provisional Governor for their respective counties, to meet at the Court House of their several counties on a day certain; and before a majority, or such number of said Justices as shall be so assembled, such Sheriffs shall enter into the bonds as required by chapter one hundred and five of the revised Code, entitled "Sheriffs," with good security, to be approved by a majority of the Justices so assembled, and deliver such bonds to the Clerks of the County Courts heretofore appointed by the Justices aforesaid; and thereupon such Sheriffs are empowered and directed to collect the taxes imposed or laid by this ordinance, under the provisions and subject to the pains and penalties set forth in the chapter of the revised Code above referred to, except in such particulars as are otherwise provided for in this ordinance; Provided, however, That if the persons referred to as acting Sheriffs, refuse or decline to enter the bonds required, then, and in that event, the Justices aforesaid may appoint some other person to qualify and act as Sheriff, under the provisions of this ordinance, who shall enter into bond as aforesaid.

Sec. 24. The several Sheriffs shall file with the Clerks of the County Courts of their respective counties the names of the persons from whom they shall have collected any tax under this ordinance, annexing to the name of each tax payer the amount collected from him, with careful additions of the whole, showing the aggregate amount collected; which statement he shall subscribe and verify by affidavit before such clerk, in the words following: "I swear that the foregoing statement truly sets forth the name of each individual, firm and corporation from which I have collected taxes, and the amount of each of them, under the ordinance of the convention, entitled an ordinance to provide revenue for the year eighteen hundred and sixty-five;" ratified the eighteenth day of October, eighteenen hundred and sixty-five; all sums which may have been received by any Sheriff, or Clerk of any court, in the name of the State, as taxes, fines, forfeitures or otherwise, shall, if received by the Clerk, be paid to the Sheriff; and all such sums shall be entitled in the statement to be filed by the Sheriff as aforesaid; and the Clerk shall furnish to the Sheriff a certificate verified by his signature and official seal, showing the total amount of such collections, to be filed by said Sheriff with the Public Treasurer, when he shall pay over the same to said Treasurer.

Sec. 25. The Clerks of said courts shall make a copy of the statement returned by the Sheriff and keep the same posted up in some conspicuous and accessible place in the Court House, for one month immediately after the filing of the same, and he shall at all times allow any tax payer of his county to inspect the original.

Sec. 26. The Sheriff shall pay over the money collected as aforesaid by him—less six per cent. where the amount collected is under one thousand dollars, five per cent where the amount collected is over one thousand dollars and under two thousand dollars, and four per cent. where the amount is over two thousand dollars, by way of commissions for his services, which he is hereby authorized to retain—to the Public Treasurer, on or before the first day of February, eighteen hundred and sixty-six. Any Sheriff failing to pay to the Public Treasurer as aforesaid, shall forfeit to the State one thousand dollars; and the Public Treasurer shall report such defaulting Sheriff to the solicitor for the judicial district in which such Sheriff resides, and such solicitor shall, at the next term of the Superior Court of the county in which such Sheriff resides, move for judgment for the amount due from such Sheriff, and also the penalty aforesaid, and the presiding Judge is hereby empowered to render judgment in favor of the State against such defaulting Sheriff, and the sureties on his bond, for the amount so due by him, including said penalty, without other notice to such Sheriff or his sureties than is given by the delinquency of such Sheriff.

Sec. 27. For this settlement with the Treasurer the Sheriff shall be paid by the Treasurer five dollars for each day he may be necessarily engaged therein, and four dollars for every thirty miles of twice the estimated distance from his home to the seat of government, by the most usual way travelled.

Sec. 28. That five hundred copies of this ordinance be printed for distribution by the Treasurer among the Sheriffs and Clerks of the different counties of this State.

[Ratified in convention this eighteenth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.]

JAS. H. MOORE, Secretary of the Convention.

ELECTION NOTICE.

TO THE VOTERS OF WAKE COUNTY.—I announce myself as a candidate for the office of Superior Court Clerk of Wake [illegible], and, if elected, will serve you the 9th of November next, will serve you with industry and fidelity.

It will be impossible for me to see you all before the election, and you will naturally wish to know what I am for and against. I am for David A. Wicker, alias Sailor, for Superior Court Clerk, and against Bunting, alias Moss, and Buck Moore.

Hoping you will vote for me, I am your obedient servant, DAVID A WICKER.

TO THE VOTERS OF THE FOURTH CONGRESSIONAL District, composed of the counties of Orange, Chatham, Granville, Warren, Franklin, Nash, Johnston and Wake:

FELLOW-CITIZENS:—I hereby announce myself a candidate to represent you in the next Congress of the United States. The short time between this and the day of election precludes the possibility of a canvass.—Indeed, in the present condition of the country, a heated political campaign should be deprecated by all.—The particular measures that will claim the attention of the ensuing Congress cannot now with certainty be known. Hence, idle speculations and precedent pledges are, for the most part, vain and unnecessary. There is a question, however, which seems to be agitating, to some extent, the minds of the people, both North and South, but which properly comes within the purview of the State Legislature. I allude to negro suffrage, to which I am utterly opposed. I am in favor, as no doubt all of us are, of the speedy restoration of civil law in the State.

If I am honored, fellow-citizens, by your suffrages with a seat in Congress, I can only promise you to guard zealously your best interests—to devote what ability I may possess to the advocacy and preservation of all your rights—and to uphold and maintain, to the full extent of my power, whatever measures will redound to the welfare, freedom and honor of North Carolina. I sincerely and ardently desire that our people may soon be restored to the enjoyment of all their rights of both person and property, and that they may again be blessed with prosperity, liberty and happiness.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

A H ARRINGTON.

BURNING OF THE MUSEUM!

LETTER FROM MR. P. T. BARNUM!

NEW YORK, July 14, 1865.

Messrs. Herring & Co.:

GENTLEMEN—Though the destruction of the American Museum has proved a serious loss to myself and the public, I am happy to verify the old adage that "It's an ill wind that blows nobody good," and, consequently, congratulate you that your well-known safes have again demonstrated their superior fire-proof qualities in an ordeal of unusual severity.

The safe you made for me some time ago was in the office of the Museum, on the second floor, back part of the building, and in the hottest of the fire.

After twenty-four hours of trial it was found among the debris, and on opening it this day has yielded up its contents in very good order—books, papers, policies of insurance, bank bills, all in condition for immediate use, and a noble commentary on the trustworthiness of Herring's Fire-Proof Safes.

Truly yours,
P. T. BARNUM,

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

In the year 1846, the writer embarked in the Drug Business in the city of Philadelphia, and while thus engaged, made several experiments in regard to the most desirable mode of preparing Fluid Extracts. My efforts being successful—the articles being approved and used by the medical faculty—I was desirous of placing them before the public, but hesitated for some time before concluding to resort to newspaper advertising, knowing of the prejudices that existed in the minds of many against using advertised Medicines or Nostrums, but through the advice of friends and those who had used them this objection was overcome.

After 18 years' exertions, commencing in a small way, the popularity of my articles has extended to all parts of the United States, and widely throughout foreign countries—and this in the face of much opposition.—Every means has been resorted to by unprincipled dealers since their merit and success have been known—such as advertising large bottles at less price, censuring all other preparations, and even copying my advertisements—but I am happy to state that out of the many who have resorted to this, none have been successful.

MY OBJECT

in this notice is to make facts known to the public and respectable dealers, believing, after so many years' exertions, that the Druggists will discountenance such proceedings, and that the reputation of my articles may not be damaged by the use of inferior or spurious ones.

Knowing that many may read this article who are unacquainted with me, I append a few remarks from those of my native city, and whose names are known in all parts of the world:

"Being personally acquainted with Mr. H. T. Helmbold, it affords me pleasure in stating I have been most favorably impressed with his energy and integrity, and gratified at his success." WM. WEIGHTMAN,

[Evening Bulletin, Philadelphia.]

"When on a visit to the city of New York, a few days since, I was induced to call on our old friend and townsman, Mr. H. T. Helmbold, Druggist, 594 Broadway, N. Y. His store is a model—a perfect gem—the handsomest of any kind we have ever had the pleasure of viewing, and so extensive, being 34 feet front, five stories in height, and over 200 feet deep. It indeed affords us much pleasure to know that he has been so successful and it is ample evidence of the merits of his articles—as in our whole business experience we have not known of the success of any articles without merit—advertising merely bringing the name before the people."

[Boston Herald.]

"We do not like to advertise worthless wares, or articles calculated to deceive our readers; and when we see an advertiser like Mr. Helmbold, whom we have known for years, gradually extend his advertising from year to year until he becomes the largest advertiser in the United States, we are satisfied that the statements in regard to his articles must be correct."

The writer reluctantly inserts the above, and would not do so were he not a stranger to many; and concludes by stating the names of his articles, and the diseases for which they have been used by many thousands with complete success.

NEW SKIRT FOR 1865.

The Great Invention of the Again

Hoop Skirt.

J. W. BRADLEY'S NEW PATENT DUPLEX ELLIPTIC, (OR DOUBLE) SPRING SKIRT.

THIS INVENTION CONSISTS OF DUPLEX (OR two) Elliptic Pure Refined Steel Springs, ingeniously braided tightly and firmly together, easy to edge, making the toughest, most flexible, elastic and durable Spring ever used. They seldom bend or break, like the Single Springs, and consequently preserve their perfect and beautiful shape more than twice as long as any Single Spring Skirt that ever has or can be made.

The wonderful flexibility and great comfort and pleasure to any Lady wearing the Duplex Elliptic Skirt will be experienced particularly in all crowded Assemblies, Operas, Carriages, Railroad Cars, Church Pews, Arm Chairs, for Promenade and House Dress, as the Skirt can be folded when in use to occupy a small place as easily and conveniently as a Silk or Muslin Dress.

A Lady having Enjoyed the Pleasure, Comfort and Great Convenience of wearing the Duplex Elliptic Steel Spring Skirt for a single day will never afterwards willingly dispense with their use. For Children, Misses and Young Ladies they are superior to all other.

The Hoops are covered with 3 ply double twisted thread and will wear twice as long as the Single yarn covering which is used on all Single Steel Hoop Skirts. The three bottom rods on every Skirt are also Double Steel, and twice or double covered to prevent the covering from wearing off the rods when dragging down stairs, stone steps, &c., &c., which they are constantly subject to when in use.

All are made of the new and elegant Corded Tapes, and are the best quality in every part, giving to the wearer the most graceful and perfect shape possible, and are unquestionably the lightest, most desirable, comfortable and economical Skirt ever made.

WESTS', BRADLEY & CARY, (late J. I. & J. O. West,) Proprietors of the invention, and sole manufacturers, 97 Chambers and 79 & 81 Reade Streets, New York.

For sale in all first-class stores in this City, and throughout the United States and Canada, Havana de Cuba, Mexico, South America and the West Indies.

If England chose to be angry, she would have greater reason to complain of America's position as neutral in the Fenian movement than the United States had in regard to the Confederacy, inasmuch as the plot was formed in America by American citizens. PROCLAMATION,

PROVISIONAL GOVERNOR,

TO THE

PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

WHEREAS, A CONVENTION OF THE PEOPLE of North Carolina has been chosen in pursuance of the proclamation of ANDREW JOHNSON, President of the United States, of date May 29th, 1865, under the fourth section of the fourth article of the Constitution of the United States, which guarantees to every State in the Union a republican form of government, for the purpose of enabling the loyal people of said State to organize a State government, whereby justice may be established, domestic tranquility restored, and loyal citizens protected in all their rights of life, liberty and property; and for the purpose also of restoring said State to its Constitutional relations to the Federal Government, by presenting such a republican form of government as will entitle the State to the guarantees of the United States therefor, and its people to protection by the United States against invasion, insurrection and domestic violence: And said Convention having assembled in the City of Raleigh and adopted Ordinances hereinafter set forth, I, WILLIAM W. HOLDEN, Provisional Governor of said State, do hereby proclaim and declare that an election will be held in the various counties of said State on Thursday, the ninth day of November, 1865, as follows:

1st. For the ratification or rejection of "An Ordinance declaring null and void the ordinance of May the 20th, 1861."

2d. For the ratification or rejection of "An Ordinance prohibiting slavery in the State of North Carolina."

3d. For a Governor and members of the General Assembly.

4th. For seven members of the House of Representatives at the Congress of the United States.

5th. For Clerks and Sheriffs of the respective counties.

"The elections shall be conducted in accordance with "An Ordinance providing for the election of the members of the General Assembly, to be convened on the fourth Monday of November, eighteen hundred and sixty-five, and for electing Representatives in Congress and Governor of the State," ratified by the Convention the tenth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and hereinafter set forth; said Ordinance having been passed in pursuance of the proclamation of the President of the United States, of date May 29th, 1865, authorizing said Convention to "prescribe the qualifications of electors, and the eligibility of persons to hold office under the constitution and laws of the State." And also, in conformity with the rules and regulations prescribed by the laws of this State concerning said elections, in force previous to the 20th day of May, 1861.

The people of the State are respectfully urged to maintain order among themselves at the election, and to discountenance appeals, the tendency of which may be to produce ill-feeling and alienation towards the Federal Government. The policy of the government has been liberal and generous towards North Carolina, and no pains should be spared to secure a continuance of this policy.

And the officers in the various counties, appointed by the Provisional Governor, are enjoined to exert themselves to preserve the peace among the people on the day of the election; to act with justice and firmness in all matters that may claim their attention; to see that those entitled to vote are protected in their right of suffrage, and that every manifestation, if such manifestation there should be, of hostility to the Federal Government, is promptly rebuked and repressed.

Done at our city of Raleigh, the 18th day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and in the year of the Independence of the United States the ninetieth.

W. W. HOLDEN, Provisional Governor.

By the Governor: W. R. RICHARDSON, Private Sec.

AN ORDINANCE

To give publicity to the Ordinance ordering Elections on the 2nd Thursday in November next:

Be it ordained by the people of North Carolina, in Convention assembled, and it is hereby ordained, That the Provisional Governor be empowered and requested to take such steps as in his judgment may be necessary to make known to the people of North Carolina the ordinances ordering elections, on the 2nd Thursday of November, 1865. [Read three times, and ratified in Convention the 12th day of October, A. D. 1865.]

EDWIN G. READE, President.

JAS. H. MOORE, Secretary of the Convention.
R. C. BADGER, Assistant Secretary.

AN ORDINANCE

Declaring null and void the ordinance of May, eighteen hundred and sixty-one:

Be it declared and ordained by the delegates of the good people of North Carolina, in Convention assembled, and it is hereby declared and ordained, That the ordinance of the Convention of the State of North Carolina, ratified on the twenty-first day of November, seventeen hundred and eighty-nine, which adopted and ratified the Constitution of the United States, and also all acts and parts of acts of the General Assembly, ratifying and adopting amendments to the said Constitution, are now and at all times since the adoption and ratification thereof, have been in full force and effect; notwithstanding the supposed ordinance of the twentieth day of May, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, declaring that the same be repealed, rescinded and abrogated; and the said supposed ordinance is now and at all times hath been null and void. (Ratified in Convention, this seventh day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one.)
